Are you intuitive? Do you have precognitive dreams?

Timeless messages of hope, inspiration, and love pour through these chapters with an authenticity that speaks directly to the soul. Knowing that you are not alone, that there is purpose to your life, that you are loved beyond measure will renew your faith in what it means to be a multidimensional being of Spirit. As co-creators of this earthly experience, you are invited to take your next big step forward as two sisters share their true life mystical experiences that led them to a deep awareness of Spirit's interaction in everyday life. Through tales of love, loss, and faith regained, they share the enchanting magic that transformed the mundane into the miraculous. Through the initiation process of learning through trial and error to listen and trust, you can learn to walk the talk. From a miracle healing, to vanishing stones, to the appearance of angels of light, the magic comes to life as you see the beautiful possibilities of spiritual growth for your own life.

"I love this book! The messages contained within this book are very healing, comforting and heart-opening, and the book can help us all to release our fears. It is one thing to teach the path of spirit and quite another to walk it. Nancy Lee and Cecelia Keenan have journeyed on the mystical path of spirit since childhood, and their teachings are grounded in life-experience. Awakening the Mystic isn't based on fantasy or wishful thinking of dreamers, but rather on the wisdom of those who have lived the dream, and have understood its reality.
